

Triennial Wellness Policy Assessment

Rocketship Public Schools is seeking participants for the School Food Authority's Triennial Wellness Policy Assessment, which will involve reviewing Rocketship's local wellness policy, assessing its content, reviewing school health practice, and developing improvement plans. Participants can represent all school levels and include (to the extent possible), but not be limited to parents and caregivers; students; representatives of the school nutrition program (ex., school nutrition director); physical education teachers; health education teachers; school health professionals (ex., health education teachers, school health services staff [i.e., nurses, physicians, dentists, health educators, and other allied health personnel who provide school health services], and mental health and social services staff [i.e., school counselors, psychologists, social workers, or psychiatrists]; school administrators (ex., superintendent, principal, vice principal), school board members; health professionals (ex., dietitians, doctors, nurses, dentists); and the general public.

If you are interested in being a participant or have any questions regarding this process, please contact Kelly Giampaoli at kgiampaoli@rsed.org.
