

Ms. Pettus' Take Home Tools

Thank You for Joining Us!

Thank you to everyone who joined the Finishing Strong webinar brought to you by Rocketship's Teacher PD Launchpad .

Here you'll find the resources Ms. Pettus referenced and additional information that will help you implement Finishing Strong lessons into your classroom.

If you haven't already, please be sure to take our survey. Feedback is welcomed and appreciated!

Finishing Strong: A Professional Development Offering of eXtension Foundation Impact Collaborative

Here you will find Finishing the year strong activities and other tools for success for elementary, middle and high school. All research and updates are in conjunction with WGU of Tennessee.

Finishing Strong: How to set yourself up for success rounding out the school year.

Use Finishing the School Year Strong Hub to help guide and increase your knowledge of various ways to navigate finishing the school year successfully. . This resource features a few short ways you can support yourself and students in the most impactful way. It also includes links to test preps and even tutors. This hub is very insightful and full of resources.

Articles and Resources

EdWeek

EdWeek.Org is an exceptional website that encourages many activities for students that promote positive mindsets for ending the school year strong. It includes student-driven learning activities as well as learning center ideas. Having a space that is full of motivation is critical during this time of year. This is a tried and true high leverage move used in classrooms across the world.

Finishing Strong

How To Finish Strong This School Year - A Cure for Schoolitis is a YouTube video that explains the importance of finishing the year strong. It is a video full of motivation and sets the tone for educators to stay strong and push until the end of the year.